Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C &amp; D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

1. The following document requests are to be responded to fully, by furnishing all information in your possession, custody, or control. Your having possession, custody, or control of a document includes your having a right, superior to other parties, to compel the production of such document from a third party, such as your agent, employee, representative, or, unless privileged, attorney.

2. A document with handwritten notes, editing marks, etc. is not identical to one without such notes or marks and therefore must be produced if within the scope of documents requested.

5. Produce each requested document in its entirety, including all attachments and enclosures, even if only a portion of the document is responsive to the request.

6. If you withhold from production any document, or any portion of any document, that is otherwise responsive to a request on the basis of privilege, work product, or any other ground, you must provide sufficient information regarding the withheld document to permit the Court and the parties to evaluate the propriety of your objection. Specifically, you must identify: (a) the name and title of the author(s) of the document; (b) the name and title of each person to whom the document was addressed; (c) the name and title of each person to whom the document was distributed; (d) the name and title of each person to whom the document was disclosed, in whole or in part; (e) the type of document (e.g. "memorandum" or "report"); (f) the subject matter of the document; (g) the purpose(s) of the document; (h) the date on the document, and, if different, the date on which the document was created and / or sent; (i) the specific request herein to which the document is responsive; (j) the nature of the privilege(s) asserted as to the document; and (k) a detailed, specific explanation as to why the document is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery, including a presentation of all factual grounds and legal analyses.

Produce the requested documents either in their original file folders or appended to a copy of any writing on the file folders from which the documents are taken.

9. Identify each document produced by the paragraph number of this schedule to which it is responsive. If a document is produced in response to more than one request, it is sufficient to identify only the first request to which the document is responsive.

10. All electronically stored information must be produced in the same form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Specifically, all electronically stored information must be produced in its native format, so that the metadata can be assessed.

11. Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for this request is from January 1, 1997 through and including the present.

12. This request is a continuing one that calls for the supplemental or additional production of documents if you or your counsel obtains supplemental or additional documents.

13. In responding to the requests below: (a) the disjunctive shall also be read to include the conjunctive and vice versa; (b) "including" shall be read to mean "including without limitation"; (c) the singular shall also be read to include the plural and vice versa; (d) the present shall also be read as if the past tense and vice versa; (e) "any" shall be read to include "all" and vice versa, and (f) "and" shall be read to include "or" and vice versa.
